FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Restoration Technical Institute Offers Specialty Flooring Class

READING, PA, October 7, 2019 – The Restoration Technical Institute is excited to announce that they will be offering a new class from instructor, Claudia Lezell: Flooring, Subfloor, Concrete & More for 14 IICRC CECs on December 12 – 13 at their location at 1145 Commons Boulevard, Reading, PA 19605.

Class topics covered will be: floor assemblies, cleaning, maintenance, moisture, failures, substrates, challenges, concrete, and more – all taught with hands-on training for many types of professionals who want to:

- Discover how to identify pre-existing flooring conditions and how to limit liability
- Understand considerations/complexities of moisture related issues
- Gain insight and understanding of the inspection process...and more!

The skills you learn from Ms. Lezell will elevate you and your business into another league and differentiate you when positioning your company for both residential and commercial assignments.

Instructor, Claudia Lezell has been involved in the floor covering industry for more than 30 years. Since 1995, she has owned and operated Inspections Too, Inc., a full-time floor covering inspection and consulting service. Claudia established the Flooring Technology Institute school of learning in partnership in order to teach technical information to the related industries. She has spearheaded, led and served as the Division chair of the IICRC Hard Surface Certification Floor Covering Inspector Program for over 20 years. Claudia actively lectures at national conferences and trade shows, all while conducting numerous seminars designed to educate professionals in corresponding fields.
